Proof of SA Government corruption, Police perjury & departmental collusion resulting in my wrongful conviction

March, 2025

Dear Reader,

I have pleaded my innocence for now 33 years
Despite surpassing both my parole eligibility date and release date by over a decade, I have been continuously detained since 1992. Following a flawed trial marred by corruption, perjury, and inadequate defence, I was wrongly convicted of murder.

I am presenting to you a comprehensive compilation of legal documents and evidence that I have meticulously gathered over the course of many years. This collection exposes systemic corruption and wrongdoing by various South Australian Government departments, the South Australian Parole Board, and the prison system, which have collectively contributed to maliciously prosecute an illegally orchestrated conviction.

As a layperson, I have devoted thousands of hours over the past 33 years to studying law, drafting legal documents, requesting FOI documents substantiating my claims and advocating for my rights. My efforts have been focused on presenting evidence to various government agencies and officials, with the hope that they would review my case and acknowledge my innocence.

In the face of continued silence and inaction, I am now releasing my entire compilation of documents to the Australian public. My objective is to expose the corruption and wrongdoing that has perpetuated my unjust incarceration and to seek assistance in bringing these issues to light.

I urge readers to review the enclosed documents in the order they appear, as they provide a chronological and comprehensive account of my case. Despite the overwhelming challenges I have faced, I remain resolute in my pursuit of justice and my determination to expose corruption and their lies.

Sincerely,

Dave Jarrett
