

until the expiration of the period of his parole;

and

(b) may be subject to any other condition fixed by the Board or, in the case of a prisoner serving a sentence of life imprisonment, recommended by the Board and approved by the Governor, to be effective until the expiration of the period of his parole or for such lesser period as may be specified in the order.

(3) Where a prisoner who is serving a sentence of life imprisonment is to be released on parole, the Board—

(a) shall recommend to the Governor the period, being a period of not less than three years nor more than ten, for which the prisoner should continue on parole;

and

(b) shall forward a copy of its recommendations as to the period of parole and the conditions to which the release on parole is to be subject to the Governor for approval.

(4) In fixing or recommending conditions to which the release on parole of a prisoner will be subject, the Board shall have regard to the following matters:

- (a) the circumstances and gravity of the offence, or offences, for which the prisoner was sentenced to imprisonment;
- (b) the behaviour of the prisoner while in prison;
- (c) the behaviour of the prisoner during any previous period of release on parole;
- (d) any reports tendered to the Board on the health, behaviour or psychological condition of the prisoner, or on any other matter relating to him;
- (e) the probable circumstances of the prisoner after his release from prison;

and

(f) any other matters that the Board considers relevant.

(5) A prisoner shall not be released pursuant to this section until—

(a) the conditions to which his release on parole will be subject have been fixed or recommended by the Board and, if the case so requires, approved by the Governor, pursuant to this section;

and

(b) the prisoner has accepted those conditions in writing.

(6) Where a prisoner refuses or fails to accept the conditions to which his release on parole is to be subject, the Board shall review the circumstances of the prisoner at intervals fixed by the Board, being not less than three months nor more than one year.

(7) If, after carrying out a review pursuant to subsection (6), the Board is of the opinion that the prisoner will accept the conditions
